EDITORIAL

This magazine is devoted to leather devices and high heeled shoes as we find being tied or bound in such restraints shown in our magazine gives the full erotic sensation of bondage. We thank Centurians for the use of their devices.

BONDAGE, LEATHER

This is another form of foreplay that people indulge in. It's one of the least written about or understood, but one of the most practiced. The falsehood that if you enjoy leather and bondage you're a sadist is entirely wrong. In spite of what people might think of the leather, whips, belts, etc., it is rare indeed for anyone to get hurt. If they did, they wouldn't be coming back for more, and there wouldn't be so many people doing it. It is just another form of harmless foreplay.

The rapists and murderers who make the headlines in the paper have a severe mental illness and have no relation whatsoever with the weekend bondage enthusiast. The people who enjoy the leather outfits and being bound, enjoy the tight fitting feelings and tingling sensation to tight fitting articles, especially around the thighs and buttocks. There are a lot of articles made that rub and pull at the genitals and also the lips of the vagina. This in itself arouses and stimulates the wearer. There are a lot of reasons and causes for bondage devotees. We cannot go into all of them at this time, but will thoroughly explore it in our future volumes.

Some people like the feeling of being dominated and bound while the disciplinarian forces them to commit cunnilingus to them. This alone should give you some idea to why people enjoy bondage. The person who takes the role as disciplinarian loves the feeling of control over his subject for many reasons. Some partners switch roles. There is a great feeling of security by both individuals in bondage, and neither one would even consider really hurting the other. There is probably quite a bit of fantasy involved in the acts. Many men are highly aroused to see a woman in high heeled shoes or boots standing over them, and as many women are likewise aroused by such activity - sight, sound and a little fantasy. Ardent followers of discipline and bondage swear that it brings them closer together for a life-long relationship of happiness and pleasure. They claim some of the happiest marriages result from it. There are probably many reasons for this, but one stands out in our minds more than the others—If one partner were to do something wrong or to the dislike of the other. ? ? ? ?

CHAIR BONDAGE:

By using a chair, you can get a lot of variety into it. Breast tying, gags, blin folds,rope, etc. Rope is usually preferre when using a chair. High heeled shoes can be tied onto your subject to give more complete feeling to both you and your slave. Chastity belts, collars, trainers, and even a dildo or two, shoved into the right places can make your slave squirm herself into ecstacy.

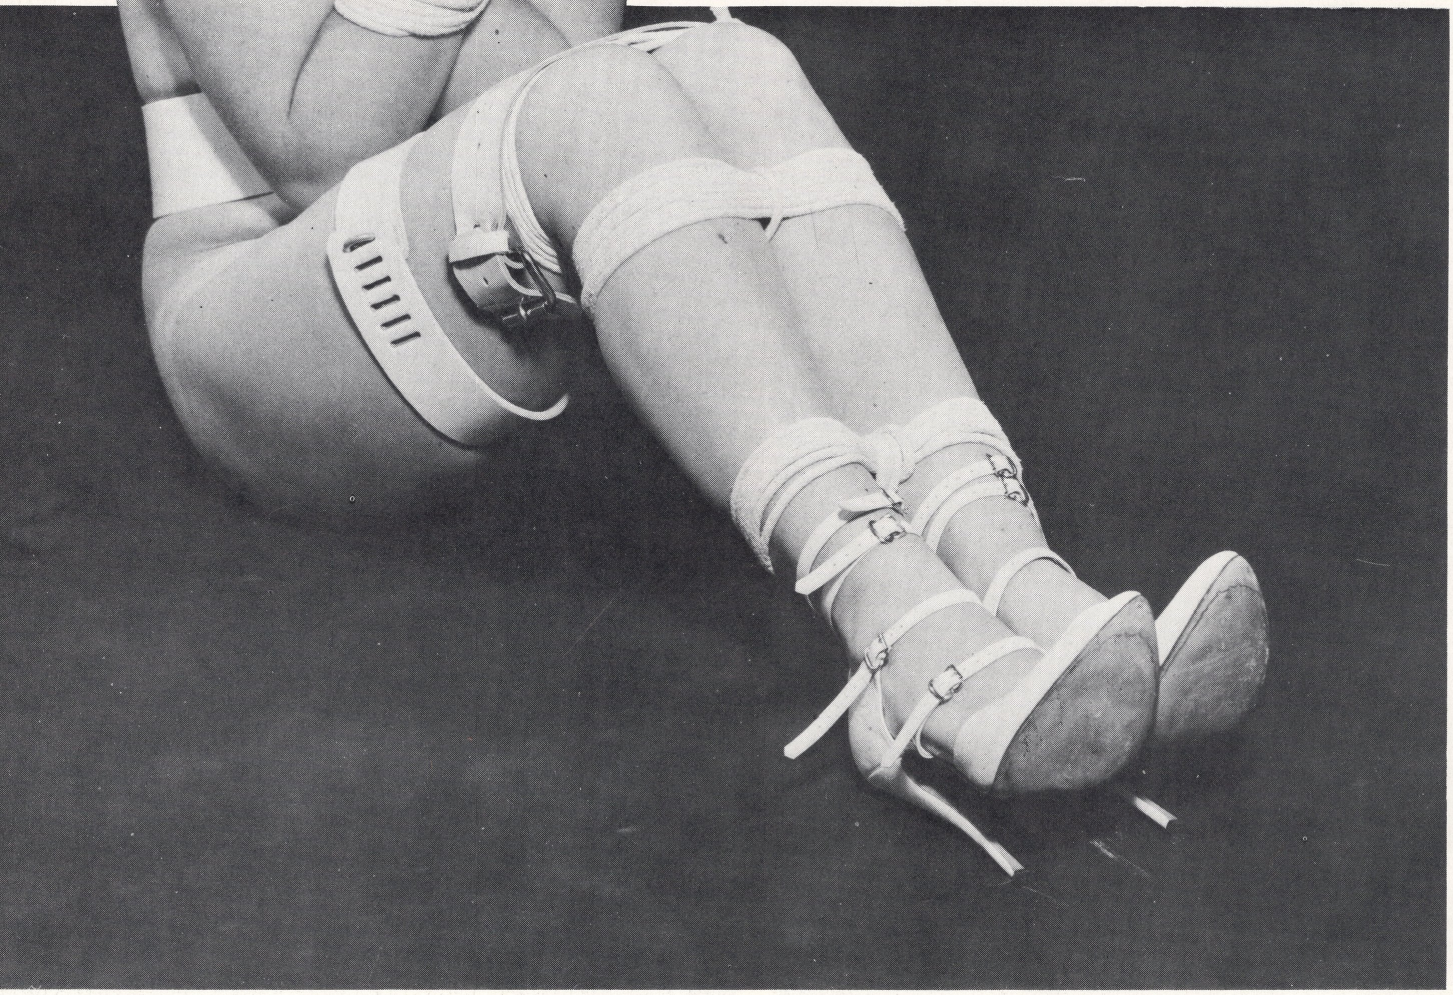
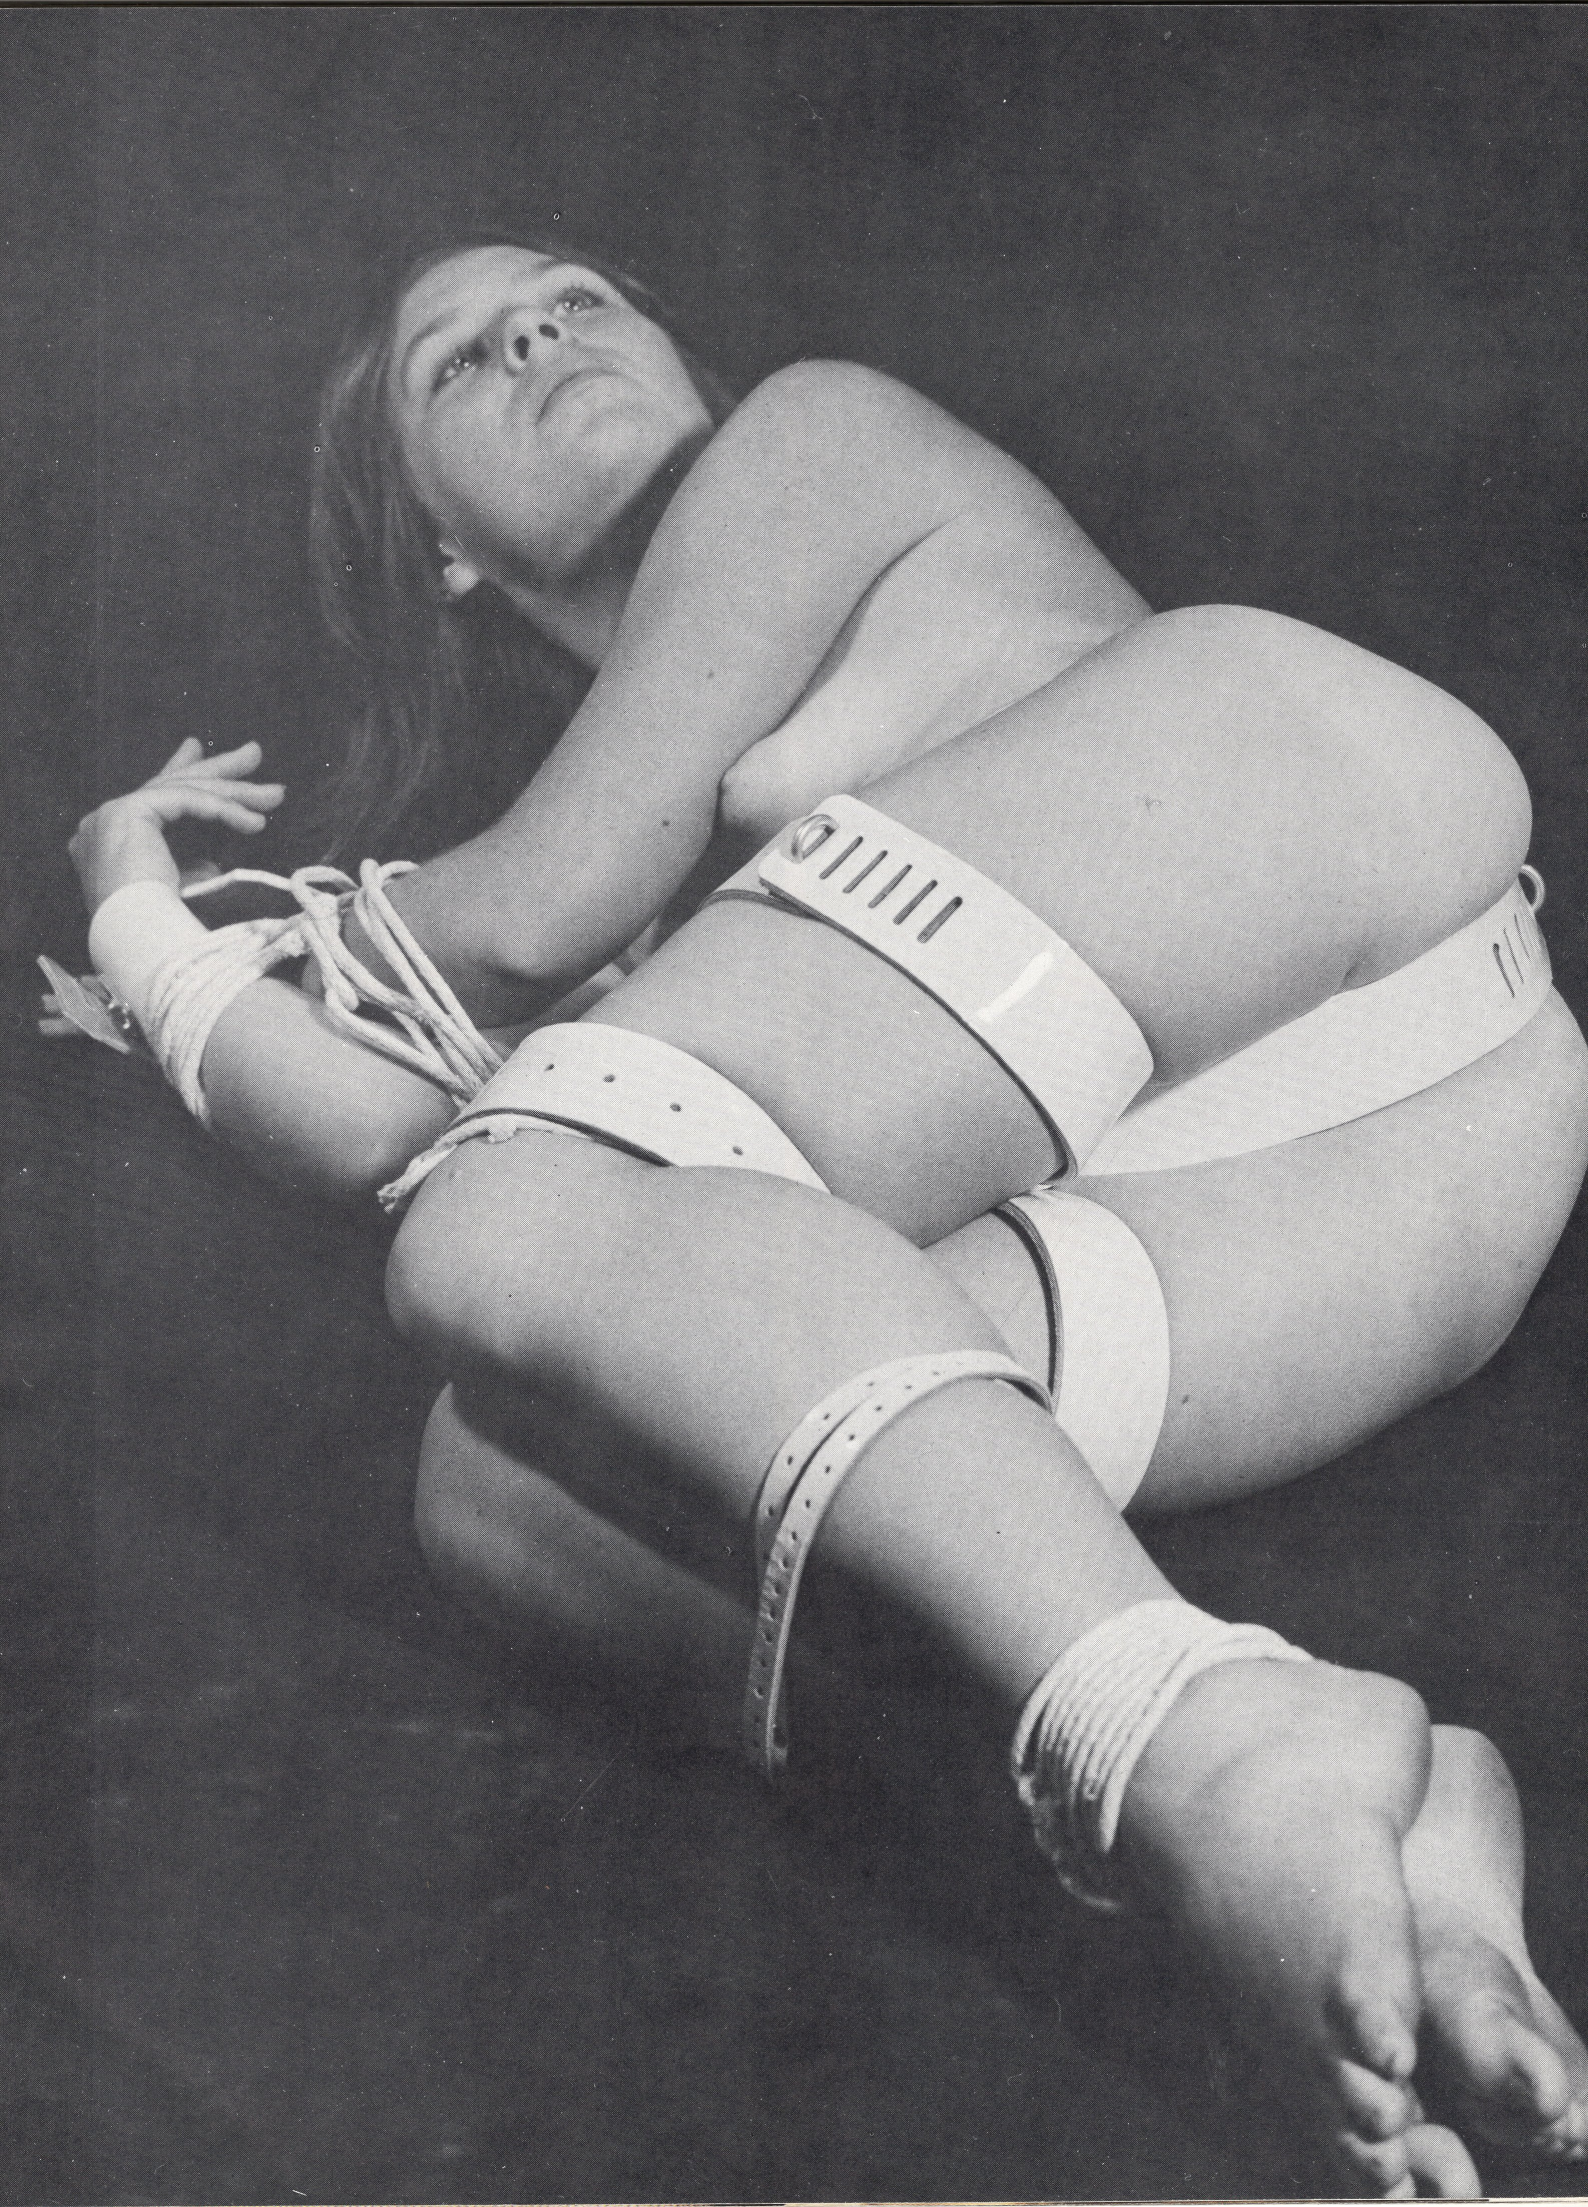
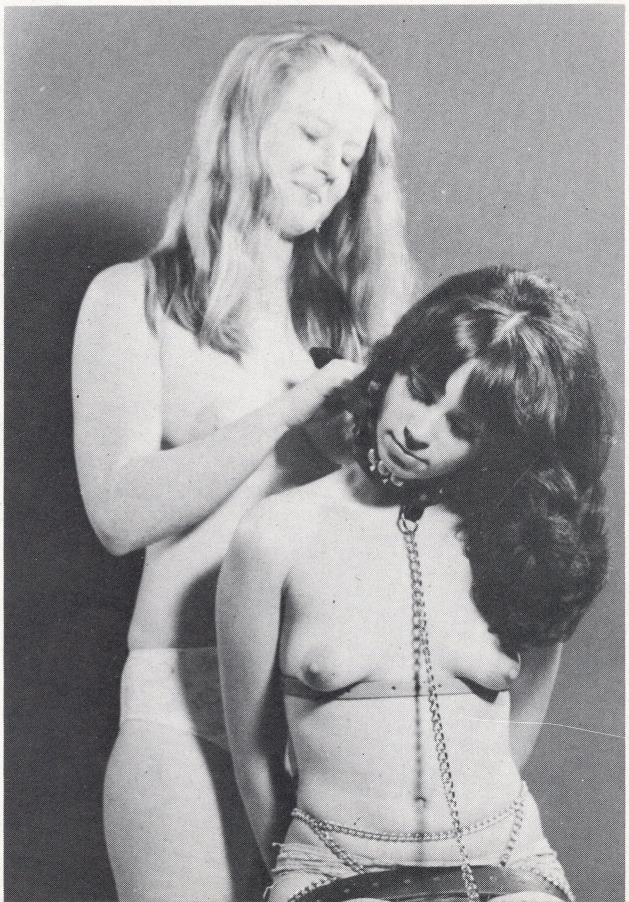
BONDAGE POSITIONS

There are hundreds of different methods of restraining your slave depending on what you have available; leather, rope, or both. Leather and rope together can be one of the most erotic.







STOOL BONDAGE

Nearly everyone has a stool around. When you were in school, did the teacher ever make you sit in the corner if you were bad? Well, stool bondage works on the same principle. Tie your slave up, use whatever restraints you have available. Ropes, straps, cuffs, chain, gags, helmets. The severity in which you tie him will depend on how bad he or she has been. A tightly laced corset will make your slave sit up straight. Turn the stool so your slave faces the corner. Leave as long as you deem necessary. If she talks, gag her. If she looks around, blindfold her.

RUBBER ATTIRE

Not only is rubber fun and erotic to wear, it will turn on your mate like never before. It molds to every curve of your body to enhance every detail of it. Gloria is shown here wearing rubber hose and rubber panties. Our photographer couldn't control himself so we didn't get any more pictures of her.

RUBBER STRAPPING

Rubber straps go hand in hand with rubber clothing and bondage. There are many styles of thick straps supplied by Centurian. You design and they will make it. Their uses are up to you—bed straps, leg, waist, chastity, connecting parts of body, squeezing limbs together. Many bondage devotees want everything to fit extremely tight. Rubber strapping is the TIGHTEST.

THE FIRST BOOK DEVOTED EXCLUSIVELY TO THE GENITALS AS A PLEASURE SOURCE!

WHAT DO YOU REALLY KNOW ABOUT GENITAL SIZE AND THE PART IT PLAYS IN YOUR OWN SEX LIFE? DO YOU REALLY KNOW HOW TO MASTURBATE? ARE THERE SENSATIONS YOU'VE NEVER EXPERIENCED? CAN THE PENIS BE ENLARGED SURGICALLY? CAN A STRETCHED VAGINA BE MADE SMALLER? DOES THE SHAPE OF YOUR FACE REVEAL THE SIZE OF YOUR GENITALS?

GET RID OF YOUR SECRET SEXUAL FEARS

Documented, authoritative evidence proves that human frustration, anxiety, impotence, marriage problems and mental illness have their roots in ignorance about our sexual organs.

This fact-filled, oversize volume shows a series of special views of the penis actually inside the vagina and describes the proper positions and motions for maximum stimulation. Those nagging, private doubts you may have about genital performance are discussed in frank, plain language and the easy solution to any genital size problem is given. Simply look up your problem, read the solution with the help of explicit, often full-page illustrations, and never worry about it again!

LEARN, in words and pictures, how to:

- Guarantee an orgasm every time.
- Eliminate genital anxiety.
- Change male and female genital size.
- Achieve a "snug fit" with any partner.
- "Fully engorge" a woman sexually.

SHOCKING REVELATIONS

The genitalia, the heart of sex, has never before been fully explored in words and pictures. Sexual Dimensions reveals:

How nuns used the statues of saints as sex partners.

Astonishing cases of dildo addiction among women.

The strange sexual circumstances of Jean Harlow's death.

Gangster John Dillinger's reported 22-inch penis.

The strange case of the sterilized cucumbers.

Superior technique, not superior size.

The average 21-year-old knows 50 times more about his car than about his sexual organ and a 21-year-old girl probably doesn't even know what her vagina looks like. Over 250 photographs and reproductions reveal normal and abnormal genitalia, often in full-page, larger-than-life size.

SEE actual photographs of:

- A man with two functioning penises. (page 40)
- An erect clitoris. (page 76)
- A teen-age boy's incredible organ. (page 105)
- An amazing "Pulsing Peter." (page 99)
- The erotic inner lips of the vulva. (page 74)
- Newly circumcized young boys. (page 13)
- The vagina spread wide for your close inspection. (page 81)

A MEDICAL BREAKTHROUGH

Sexual Dimensions explains a special method doctors use to permanently enlarge the penis.

No less than twenty-five qualified medical doctors contribute specific sexual information and advice to the reader of this pioneer volume. Questions about prolonged genital stimulation are answered on the basis of scientific knowledge. Learn how athletic masturbation increases penis and clitoris size. How the Kegel Perineometer brings sexual pleasure through manipulation of the genital muscles. How many sexually experienced women actually prefer smaller penises.

BIZARRE GENITALIA

SEE described:

- Insane women masturbating two-inch clits. (page 24)
- A long, thick penis of "freakish dimensions." (page 22)
- A woman copulating with a stallion. (page 25)
- A hand buried to the wrist in a vagina. (page 72)
- A nine-inch penis in a six-inch vagina. (page 68)
- Women who make plaster casts of erect organs. (page 88)
- A primative tribesman whose penis must be kept tied to his stomache. (page 19)

The facts of genital size will often surprise you. Do you realize that your penis is probably bigger than average? Find out if Blacks really have larger genitals than Whites through close-up photographic comparisons. Learn how women like their nipples sucked to orgasm and how nudists choose sexual partners.

Sexual Dimensions shows in words and graphic illustrations how even the smallest penis can make a woman climax every time. How a large vagina can mean more pleasure. This 8" x 10" volume reveals the little-known truth of how women really feel about penis size. Nothing is left to the imagination in this authentic, detailed book that uses over 250 photographs and reproductions to tell you everything there is to know about genital size. Join thousands who have found true erotic stimulation for the first time. This book goes beyond any sex manual because it deals exclusively with the genitalia, where sexual pleasure begins and ends.

Securing your slave well is most important. By all means, he or she must be unable to get out. The tighter you bind your slave, the more sensational the session.

Secure hands and legs. Use blindfolds and gag or a trainer helmet to control head movement. A chastity belt should be used for long training periods. If you have high heeled shoes or boots, be sure to tie them on or make sure they are tied well enough that they can't take them off.

A true master knows how much his slave can endure. Too long in bondage, can discourage his slave so that there is no more fun in it. And if there's no fun, there will be no more bondage sessions. BIND WITH LOVE and you'll have years of happiness.

LEATHER TRAINING

LEATHER

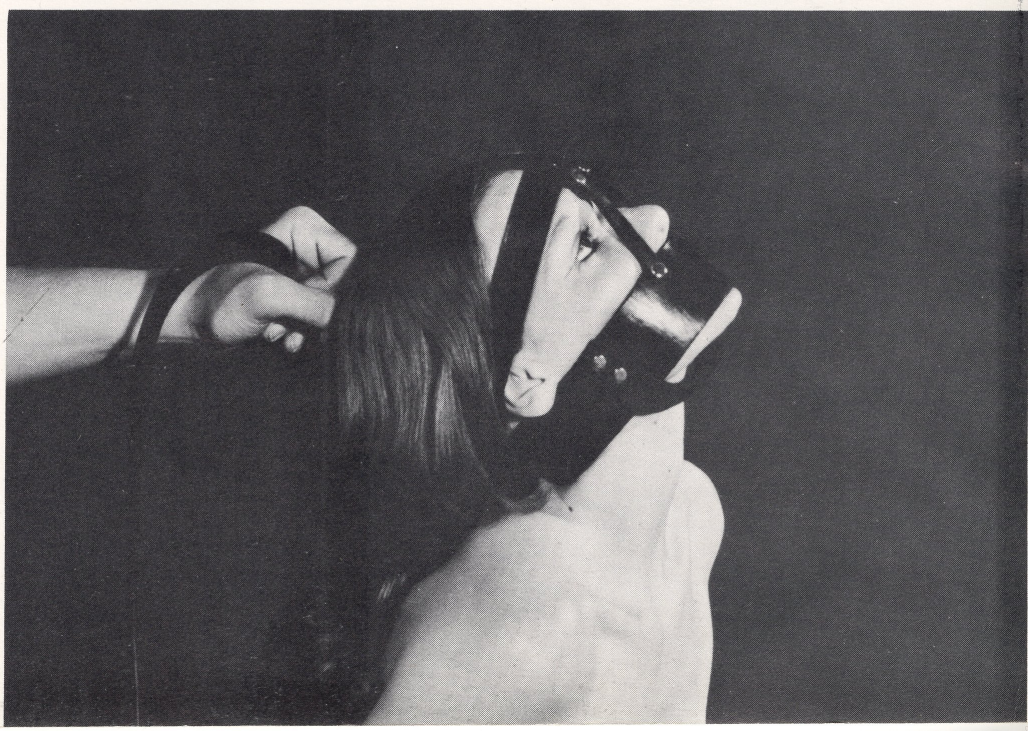
There is no other material suited for Bondage more, than leather. The variety of bondage restraints designed is limitless.

Most full time bondage enthusiasts have an assortment of leather devices. Trainers masks and gags for the face like one shown on page 21 is very popular. Here we used it for drawing the head and feet up. The elbow and wrist cuffs secured the arms and hands securely behind. Bonnie told us that she never felt this completely helpless in her life. She couldn't move an inch!

Leather is soft enough to mold around any part of the body, but strong enough to where you can't get out. Most all leather restraints are made so that they lock. The three inch collar on opposite page is a good example. It locks in back.

Blindfolds are a must. When your slave can't see what's going on around him, it will make him more sensitive to the erotic things you may want to do to him. Take away a sense, and it heightens the rest. In this case, the eyesight. Most blindfolds come padded on the inside like one shown on opposite page so that no light can get in.

Some trainers (head harnesses) come with gags. The option is usually up to the master depending on how severe he wants to punish his slave. There are many pros and cons to both. Some slaves have to breathe through the mouth so in this case, a gag should not be used. But, for a nagging disobedient slave who has no problem breathing through the nose—BY ALL MEANS order one with a gag.



BONDAGE FANTASIES

BUILD YOUR OWN BONDAGE ROOM

When we moved into our new house in Shaker Heights, we found we had a whole extra room left over on the second floor. We decided to do it over — by ourselves for obvious reasons — into a bondage playroom.

To insure our privacy, we put in heavy gray draperies, which also covered the windows, which were too modern-looking to preserve any fantasy. To keep the uninitiated out, we added a heavy-duty auxiliary lock; we recommend the Finnish ABLOY, as it gives the greatest degree of security of any lock available to civilians he United States. We have a telephone there, an electronic friend arranged a switch to ally silence the bell should we choose. Overhead are several different fluorescent tubes, several different colors. Black rubber covered h white powder under a blacklight is one -out sight, and blood-red illumination is aranteed to make a dominator or dominatrix k truly ferocious. Besides that, we have candles wrought-iron torch fitments on the wall.

A persistent problem, not only with us but with other bondage fans with whom we have exchanged information, is attaching things to walls, posts, the bed, etc. Rings in the wall are only half a solution: either the chain or staple must be padlocked, or one handcuff or leg-iron bracelet must be locked inside it. This does not look at all elegant. Also, some light chains have links which are simply too small to accommodate even the thickness of the shackle of a tiny padlock except in the end link. Well, we solved this, and you will see it in our bed.

Our bondage bed is a waterbed we bought in Coventry illage, five feet wide by seven feet long, with a frame little higher than average, and a tall headboard. To the argins of the bed are variously attached chains with andcuffs and leg irons, ropes and restraining straps. ince the bed is placed with the headboard against the all, and otherwise projecting out into the room, verything is accessible without need of bending over the ubject. (This last is important because pretending to ut up a struggle is one of the rules of the game.)

In the center and at the sides of the headboard are taple plates for ropes, and above them, our miracle chain stener, which is nothing more or less than a motorcycle elmet lock, for keeping a motorcyclist's helmet from eing stolen while unattended. Staples and helmet locks re all along the sides of the bed, and two at the foot.

The helmet lock is a long body with the keyhole at the ottom and a rectangular staple arising from the same late as the keyhole, with four holes, one at each corner, r screws. We have so many uses for them, that we must ave a hundred of them. What is better, they are all keyed like, so the bondage keyring is that much less ncumbered. The link of the chain, slipped over the hackle and snicked into the wall, is elegantly secured, wherever you have screwed the helmet lock.

We have these all over the bondage bedroom, on all four alls, and some even set into the floor away from the alls. If you can spend for more of them than just to outfit bed, the best placement of them on walls is at a height f five feet, at thirty-inch intervals. In favorite spots, two f them six inches off the floor and fifteen inches apart ill spread the ankles for a myriad of purposes.

With these locks, we can attach the end of any chain to nywhere we have prepared for it. With the equipment e use, we have nearly absolute flexibility. Our old standby one handcuff bracelet, S-hooked to a foot of flat og-collar chain, or miscellaneous lengths of flat chain hrough the staple of a leather wristlet or anklet or combo inder, or whatever. Once chained, someone can be ttached anywhere, or chains can be hung up in advance r a dungeon effect.

Along with the helmet locks, we have a staple near each lock so we can use adjustable straps when the mood indicates leather. We use very large staples, so we can use Lee's new series 3 adjustable straps with lock-tongue buckles, 1¼" wide. A staple is also good for using rope, when that is your mood.

To keep our gear together, we have shelves and a chest-of-drawers in the closet, and an Abloy lock on the closet door, keyed alike with the lock on the bedroom door. Keying alike is important for several reasons: a master or mistress simply looks more masterful with one key fitting everything; if you have a lot of equipment, but it is keyed alike, you need not carry a lot of keys; finally, it eliminates fumbling at critical times.

Getting locks keyed alike is a matter of a special order from the locksmith's. Once you have the numerical code from the key, you can have any number of locks made up to fit it, to order, but there will be a small wait for the order to be made up. Tiny padlocks, like the ¾" Master, are keyed alike period. If you buy handcuffs, make sure that all are of the same brand, because all handcuffs of the same brand, except Smith & Wesson Maximum Security, are keyed alike. If a locksmith asks you why you want such a large number of locks keyed alike, be noncommittal; say you have a large number of cabinets in your home, or that you are buying them for work. For having a locksmith change the keying on the helmet locks, it is best to say that you do not know why, but are merely doing what you were asked to do at work; if this will not work, devise another cover story; and if you can carry it off, let him know that, whether or not you know, it is no business of his.

We really do not need more than the bed and the locks and staples on the walls. We realize that each person is unique in his preferences, and that some would prefer more furniture, and some even less. Some of the furniture is unique enough that you will have to make it yourself.

We have shared with you, our experiences in setting up a bondage bedroom, in the hope they may help someone faced with difficulties in planning one of his own. What we do is uniquely ours, as what you will do will be uniquely yours.

Have fun, and if you have any new ideas, or new solutions to old problems, let the rest of us in the bondage community know.

SWINGERS AND BONDAGE

From two to fifty people get together for bondage games. Some feel the more the merrier. Others feel it is more intimate with just two. Some like threesomes and foursomes. Everyone has their own personal ideas about bondage just like anything else.

Bondage parties begin with everyone bringing as much different equipment as they can muster up. Before it even begins you have many types of restraints to choose from which already enhances the fun. Usually, straws or games are played to see who will be the masters and who the slaves. Then, the fun begins.

Slaves are made to endure nearly every type of bizarre sex imaginable.

Lesbianism, homosexuality, oral sex with both sexes and sometimes even bestiality. Their chores can range from licking your shoes to licking your ass. Nothing is left sacred. You might get tied together with dildos shoved up as many holes as you have. Have clamps put on your nipples, clitoris, penis or whatever. Be made to wear the opposite sex's clothing. Bound in spike heeled shoes and boots, laced into breath taking corsets, be tied spread eagle on a bed and everyone take turns with you.

The more people the wilder the ideas. Everyone has their own ideas of what bondage is. It may not be yours, so be careful of swinging bondage parties. You might be in for more than you bargained for!
